Financial Agreement

Player's Name: _____

Birth Date: _____ Team: _____

Must be read and signed by a parent or legal guardian

The undersigned parent or legal guardian of the above player hereby accepts financial responsibility for charges incurred by the above named player and his or her equal portion of their team's expenses. I understand that this includes but is not limited to the players uniform, his or her equal portion of the team fees for practice time, training, referees, tournaments, leagues, club charges, NYSWYSA and BCUSA registrations, field maintenance, and any team equipment.

I understand that I am to keep the account current by maintaining a positive balance. Failure to do so may result in the above player being unable to participate in tournament, league play, etc. BC United understands that in times of financial difficulty you may be unable to keep a positive balance in your account. If this is the case, talk to your team manager, special arrangements may be made with the approval of the BC United Treasurer and BC United President.

- The team manager will supply a projected budget for the year at the parents meeting.
- You should receive a statement regarding your players account monthly. You may request a copy of your account at any time from the team manager.
- The club will offer at least two fund raisers a year with proceeds going directly to the players accounts.
- Teams with negative balances will be put in bad standing. No checks will be issued for that team and they may not play until their account is up to date.
- Families with negative balances may be put in bad standing with the club and reported to New York State West.
- BC United reserves the right to pursue all unpaid individual account balances in small claims court.
